*January brings the snow,
Makes our feet and fingers glow.*

The days that February has are 4 and 24.
Leap Year gives it one day more.

March brings breezes sharp and chill,
Shakes the dancing daffodil.

April brings the primrose sweet,
Scatters daisies at our feet.

May brings grass and leafy trees
waving in each gentle

June brings tulips, lilies, roses, fills the children's hands with posies.

Hot July brings cooling showers
Apricots and many flowers

August brings fruit and vegetables.
The grape is also on the tables.

Warm September brings us rain;
we come back to school again.

Leaves get yellow red and brown,
In October they fall down.

Dull November sings his song:
Trees are bare, nights are long.

Cold December brings us sweet
Blazing fire and Christmas treat.
